Every spring holiday, I visit uncle Taha, my father's friend, and I spend one week in his farm in Testour. It is a small town in the east of Beja. Uncle Taha is a farmer, on his farm there aren't vegetables but there is a lot of fruit.

In the early morning, his wife takes a basket and picks up some peaches, pears and oranges for our breakfast. After breakfast at 9:00, I go to play and run in the big garden with uncle Taha's daughter and son, where there are baby rabbits and a group of sheep. We have lunch at 12:00 o'clock before we take a nap in the living room.

In the afternoon, we go to the souk near the farm. The salesmen there are everywhere; they sell drinks, ice cream and lots of cheese.

Ricotta cheese is my favourite dessert.

In the evening, we eat dinner between the trees under the moonlight, and sleep at 22:00 o'clock. Testour is beautiful and calm. I love it.

Hi Donald ,

Guess what! I am in Britain now , I am living in Derby with my family, and I've got some great news. I've got a new friend here in and she's famous! Well, almost famous. She's a table tennis champion and she's in my class. Her name is Jessie Shaw. Do you know her?

She's got straight blond hair and beautiful blue eyes. She's really good-looking. She's quite tall, and she wears trendy clothes, so she always looks good.

Jessie is very kind and friendly and she's got lots of cool friends. This is great because I'm usually shy. But now, all her friends are mine, too. She's also very intelligent and sometimes helps me with my Maths homework.
